1 Historical misc.

If any one of us has Native-American ancestry, we may not want to say "THANK YOU FOR COMING". Yet Yet, somehow through all the grief and despair, we are slowly learning to function as one people. Many other races have been a large part of building our nation. Hopefully we are beginning to learn from our past. Many people do Not want to remember the sorrow, nor the ways our ancestors belittled themselves. We all recognize that we can never change the past. Some try to ignore the past. Others try to idealize it. Learning how to cope with the way the settlers really were, may help us deal with our Present... and learn to enjoy our History. We need not honor each of their deeds, but if we honor their struggle, we can draw strength for ourselves. So this is a plea to each person to contribute even a tiny bit of information about the very first (1607) settlers, listed below:

IF YOU, HAVE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE ABOVE SETTLERS, PLEASE BE WILLING TO SHARE. The APVA's Research Assistant Catherine Correll-Walls, has established a database of biographical information; and of course Flowerdew Hundred and Brandon also have files. The 2007 Celebration will be even more meaningful if each of us takes time to participate. The future may prove that many of us are more closely connected than we realize, Don't miss this wonderful opportunity!

The two previous pages were based on Research of the Association for Preservation of Virginia Antiquities , in their seven booklets; especially VI. The first step: one cumulative index in alphabetical order [of their list of the 57 First Settlers whose English homes had been found, with Capt. John SMITH's 1607 list] see previous pages 1 and 2. The second step to create an alphabetical list of the known names of the second group of people , who were brought over on the PHOENIX, January 1608. This group was known as the FIRST SUPPLY :

JAMESTOWN REVISTED: 2nd SUPPLY

In May of 1608, two more ships arrived at Jamestown. They also brought more settlers without enough food to replenish the food stock of the earlier settlers. One of the ships also brought the first two English women to the colony: the wife of Thomas FOREST, one of the male passengers, and her maid: a young teen-ager named Anne Burras. Anne married John LAYDON in December, the colony's 1st

Capt. Peter WINNE commanded the 1st ship:

Capt. Richard WALDO commanded the 2nd:

Eleven of the passengers are not known by name. Perhaps their names were not recorded, because they had been here previously, gone back to England and were now on a return trip. This SUPPLY is said to have brought the Virginia Company's Treasurer: Sir Thomas SMYTHE, yet his name does not appear. Of course, he came only to see the Colony, not to settle in Virginia, and soon returned to England. Perhaps some missing names were lost at sea, or also visitors. The which are known are below:

G in front of the SURNAME, is used to signify the original classification of being a Gentleman

G ABBAY, Thomas

Ap HUGH, David, a tradesman. [Possibly from WALES]

G BEADLE, Gabriel

G John

BELL, Henry, a tradesman

BRADLEY, Thomas, a tradesman

BURRAS, Anne about 14 years old; maid of Mrs FOREST. In December, married John Laydon.

Daughter Virginia: 1st child of born in the Colony; all [3 more daus.] in the 1624 Muster.

BURRAS, John, a tradesman, perhaps a brother of above?

G BURTON, George

G "CHROWSHAW", Rawleigh CROSHAW died Nov-Dec 1624 - son Joseph²

CLARKE, John, a tradesman

G COLLINS, Henry

G CUDDERINGTON, John CODDRINGTON

G DAUXE [DAWSE?], John

DOWNMAN, William

ELLIS, David, a tradesman

FLOOD, ----- [FLOYD? Or FLOOD?] a "labourer"

G FOREST, Thomas

Wife: -----: the first woman in the Colony; nee-----

FOX, Thomas, a "labourer"

GIBSON, Thomas, a tradesman

G GRAVES, Thomas, soon after arrival, while exploring, was captured by Indians; rescued; in Muster.

HANCOCK, Nicholas, a "labourer"

HARDWYN-----, a "labourer"

G HARRISON, Harmon, killed 1622 Massacre, left wife Jane (nee-----), son Robert b. 1613.

HILLIARD, -----, a boy

G HOULT [HOLT], John

HUGH [see ap HUGH] could also have become :PUGH

G HUNT, Master-----

- LAVANDER, Thomas, a tradesman
 G LEIGH, Henry
 G LOWICK, Michael

- MALLARD, Thomas, a "labourer"
 G MAXES, Thomas
 MILMAN, -----, a boy
 MORLEY, -----, a "labourer"
 G NORTON, Thomas

OCONOR, Dionis, a tradesman

- PHELPS, Thomas, a tradesman
 G PHILPOT, Henry
 POWELL, Master----- a tradesman [originally ap Howel]
 PRAT, John, a tradesman

- ROSE, ----- a "labourer"
 G RUSSELL, John a later John or 1619 in the Bona Nova
 G William

- G SAMBAGE, William
 SCOT, -----, a "labourer" [Note the 1607 drummer: Nicholas SCOT from HUNTINGDONSHIRE]
 SHORTRIDGE, Jeffrey, a tradesman

- TAYLOR, William, a "labourer" [Note 1624 Muster: a Richard TAYLOR, arrived May 1608;

- G TUCKER, Daniel a Daniel married Margaret dau. of Mary Joseph 2 CRD SHAW
 WALDO, Capt. Richard appointed to the Council

- WALKER, ----- a "labourer"
 G WEST, Francis, [4th son, 9th child of Baron West], brother of Sir Thomas, Lord de la Warre.
 WILLIAMS, ----- a "labourer"

WINNE, Hugh, a tradesman [Note Welsh family in Flinton, FLINTSHIRE] also see KENTSHIRE.

WINNE, Capt. Peter, possibly a son of Robert , Mayor of Canterbury, or Robert's grandson : Peter Jr.
 IF Capt. Peter was of this family, he will be of kinship to the Indian interpreters of the late 1600's in Virginia. In fact, the emigrant was a son of Peter, son of the Mayor.

 This is probably a cadet line of the Lords of Gwydir in Northern WALES .

- G WOLLASTON, Hugh
 G YARRINGTON, George

Again, if anyone can add to the English background of any of the early JAMESTOWN SETTLERS, as was done with the above WINNE/WYNNE, the 2007 th Celebration will be enhanced ,and Virginia's settlers of today, will become a part of their heritage. The committee calls this : COME HOME

Affadavit of James Casey in Support of Claim To Land Bounty

The affadavit being duly sworn sayeth he is now seventy years of age that he was a soldier in the Revolution and enlisted under Capt. Henry Pitt in the Virginia Continental Line, fifteenth Regiment in the early part of the war. The Regiment was commanded by Col. David Mason and that he served three years and was honorably discharged and now draws a pension from the United States for eighty dollars per year. He was well acquainted with John Everett and Tonakin Aunt and Thomas Whitley, all of the above mentioned soldiers belonged to the 15th Continental Regiment to which I was Attached and we all went to the north and served three years together, except Thomas Whitley who died in the service before the three years were up. The Affiant now lives in Isle of Wight County, Va., where he lived before he went into the Army. Given under my hand and seal this 26th day of July 1833.

James Casey.

Sept. 28, 1776.

Dear Brother:

These lines come hoping to find you and all the family in good health as I am at present, thanks be to God for it. This day it is supposed we shall embark in order to sail to New York. Brother Jesse is well and in tolerably good health at present and he has enlisted for three years. He is to receive ten dollars Bounty Money and unbeknowing to me he did enlist. If it is please God I shall return again at the end of eighteen months and if I never return I desire that anything I have should be equally divided amongst my sisters and three brothers. There names are James, Thomas and Edward, Patty Dobbs and Lucy Stevins. I have nothing more at present to acquaint you with but that you accept of my good will to you and the rest; and I wish to subscribe myself as your loving brother.

William Bennett

N.B. The note of hand that John Lawrence gave me I have sent to you by Richard Hardy.

FIRST SECTION

NORFOLK BURNED
BY BRITISH IN 1776

Extracts from Old Files Gives Some Interesting Historical Facts of Revolutionary Days.

"The Pennsylvania Magazine; or, American Monthly Museum, Philadelphia: Printed by R. Aitken the Publisher, opposite the London Coffee-House, Front-Street."

From copies of the above publication that are in the library of the Virginia Gazette, we will reprint each week items which appear to embrace historic or other interest to readers of this journal.

Issue for January, 1776

"Extract of a letter from Colonel Howe, to the Honourable the President of the Convention, containing an account of the burning of Norfolk, Jan. 2:

"The cannonade of the town began about quarter after three yesterday, from upwards of one hundred pieces of cannon, and continued until ten this morning. Under cover of their guns, they landed and set fire to the town in several places near the water, though our men strove to prevent them all in their power; but the houses near the water being chiefly of wood, they took fire immediately and the fire spread with amazing rapidity. It is now become general, and the whole town will, I doubt not, be consumed in a day or two. Expecting that the fire would throw us into confusion, they frequently landed and were every time repulsed, I imagine with loss, but what loss I cannot tell. The burning of the town has made several avenues, so that they now fire with greater effect. I have only to wish it may be as ineffectual as the last; for we have not one man killed, and but a few wounded. I cannot enter into the melancholy of the women and children running through a crowd of shot to get out of the town, some of them with children at their breasts; a few have, I hear, been killed. Does it not call for vengeance from both God and man? It is but justice to inform you that I had the pleasure to find every officer ready to execute orders at a moments warning, and that the men behaved with steadiness and spirit. Col. Stevent went down at my command, and headed some men near the water, where he engaged party who had landed, with the spirit and conduct of a good officer. Of my friend Colonel Woodford, it is almost needless to speak, but I cannot avoid expressing that I have received from him every assistance, which conduct and spirit could give me."

"BIRTH. Dec. 7. At Dunstable a daughter of Capt. Bancroft was baptised by the name of Mary Dandridge, the maiden name of his excellency Gen. Washington's lady.

"DEATHS. At South Brimfield, Mrs. Mary Carpenter, she had eight children, sixty-four grand-children, eighty-seven great-grand-children, and two of the fifth generation, in all one hundred and sixty-one, whereof one hundred and twenty-one are now living.

"PREFERMENTS. Captain William Douglas appointed commander of Lake Chamberlain by General Montgomery.

"James Lockwood, Esq; appointed Major of Brigade, in the northern army, by General Montgomery."

FINAL INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING THE PUBLICATION OF THE LINEAGE BOOK.

For the benefit of those members who have not yet ordered their copy of the Lineage Book (the name for which has not yet been decided upon), these final instructions are being sent out, so that they may take advantage of the pre-subscription ~~tax~~ price of $10 per copy.

First of all it should be understood that this volume is not being published for commercial purposes. Only 400 copies are to be printed and the purpose of the publication is solely for the benefit of our members who wish a copy of this deluxe edition to hand down to posterity.

The price per copy will be $10 until October 15th, 1936. After that date the price will be $15.00 (By vote of Meeting).

When 200 orders are received, then $1000 will be borrowed from the Permanent Fund, and we will proceed immediately with the publication of the book.

Those wishing a copy MUST send their order to Mrs. Robert Johnston, (the Treasurer), Humboldt, Iowa, without delay, in order to purchase their copy ~~at~~ the pre-subscription price of $10.

The sketch of the American Ancestor should be sent to the Chairman, Mrs. James B. Cabell, 3201 Monument Ave., Richmond, Virginia. ~~Sketches should be sent to the Chairman, Mrs. James B. Cabell, 3201 Monument Ave., Richmond, Virginia.~~

For each member there will be given

1. Her Name

FEES

Except when otherwise stated, all fees are payable in advance.

Charges for a general search are from $ 10 up for each family line, according to time expended.
For a minor, or preliminary, genealogical search through the most promising records the fee is $ 10
∴ For search for Revolutionary Army service alone, the cost will be $ 5 in advance, and $ 5 additional when proof is found. An exhaustive search embracing not only all Revolutionary War records here but those of War Department and Pension Bureau, Washington, D. C., with copies of every item found will be $ 15

In either case, where record is from unpublished manuscripts, an official certificate will be furnished.

A like service for the Colonial period will be $ 15 ; for an examination of records of War of 1812 $ 10 ; for Confederate records $ 10

For a search for a marriage bond of one couple in one county, the price will be $ 2 . If this is continued through several counties, a reduction will be made.

I will gladly undertake your commission as indicated in your letter, and for whatever amount you care to invest, I will give you prompt, efficient and conscientious service.

Send all data you have on subject--names, dates, State and County. Provided you bear the additional expense I will also accept orders calling for work at any of the county seats.

Very sincerely yours,

¶ Except in a few old Quaker Minutes of Monthly Meetings, no early birth records have been kept in North Carolina.
Only since 1913 has this been done. Old grave stones and Family Bibles are the chief sources of birth dates.

BILL FOR A CHAISE, 1784.

The old records of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia contain much interesting matter. Late in the last century and early in the present there were many suits brought in this court by British merchants to recover ante-Revolutionary debts, and the records in the various cases are very full, containing letters, accounts, and other papers. One of the suits was that of Hyndman & Co. of London, against Josiah Parker. This latter was a gentleman of much prominence in his day, being colonel in the Revolutionary army, member of Congress etc. He resided "Macclesfield" in Isle of Wight County.

Among the evidences of debt filed by the plaintiff, was a bill, dated November 4, 1784, for a chaise they had purchased for Colonel Parker. It was a very fine vehicle, as the following account shows:

" To a new handsome Post Chaise, the Body neatly carved and run with raised Beads and scroles, the roof and upper pannells covered with neat leather Mttd (?) Japaned and highly polished, with plated mouldings round do. and head plates, painted Prince of Wales Ruffs with arms and crests neatly painted in large handsome mantles (mantlings) on the doore pannells and the Body highly varnished, the inside lin'd with superfine light col'd cloth and trimmed with raised Casoy laces, the sides stuf'd and quilted, best polished plate glasses, mahogany shutters, with plated frames, do. plated handles to the doors, double folding inside steps neat wainseated trunk under the seat and a carpet to the bottom, a handsome perch carriage and wheels suitable to the Body, the perch plated on both sides with iron to make it appear light, hind foot board fixed between the beds, the Carriage neatly carved and runn with Town made German Steele springs, strong Iron axle trees with broad screw'd plate nutts to the ends, wrought Iron pipe boxes and collars. Platform Bidget before covered with neat leather Wilted and Japaned, the carriage and wheels painted light yellow, the Iron works picked out with Corpean (?) Springs stript (striped) and oil varnished, the Body hung with a set of neat leather braces made up with whole plated buckles and loops, the whole of the best material and executed in the most workmanlike manner, Pounds 88

ASSOCIATION FOR THE PRESERVATION OF VIRGINIA ANTIQUITIES

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

January 1931.

To Members of the Association:-

We cordially extend warm and sincere New Year's greetings to the members of this Association, a chartered corporation free from taxation under the laws of Virginia, its object being to acquire and preserve the ancient landmarks of the State. Your membership helps to sustain this great work, and is solicited and prized. It is a pleasure to send you a brief statement of accomplishments and plans, present and future.

Your President gave information and assistance to the Colonial National Monument promoters, upon their request. In an Act to provide for its creation in Virginia, passing the seventy-first Congress July 3, 1930, the lands belonging to the Association are released from condemnation proceedings.

Our free wharf on James River at Jamestown is affording a great opportunity for the Raymond Riordon school-boys from New York in their steamer, "The Southland", to study Virginia history for the next three months on the very spot where this nation was born, May 13, 1607, and where the first legislative body on this hemisphere convened in 1619.

A tablet to Thomas Savage, the "Cabin Boy" who came over with the colonists and became famous, will be unveiled with suitable exercises in the Memorial Church, Jamestown, May 13th, our Pilgrimage Day.

The old Cape Henry Lighthouse, the first one to be built after the Federal Government was established, and whose light first shone in 1792, was deeded to the Association last July, including the land donated by Virginia in 1789, on which it stands. In 1881 it was abandoned and an iron structure took its place in service. The winds and storms have beaten against the old brick tower for 138 years, but they have not prevailed against it. We intend it to be a shrine in Tidewater Virginia unsurpassed. It will cost a goodly sum to do this; but that will not deter us. It will be costly, too, to put into repair the old Publick Prison at Williamsburg, as well as to keep the Powder Horn in condition.

All are saddened at the passing of Mrs. John B. Lightfoot, "One of the Faithful". In her position as chairman of the Jamestown committee Miss Ellen M. Bagby has been appointed, and as chairman of the Memorial Church committee, Mrs. Granville G. Valentine.

Our work needs large funds; and it would be of great assistance if you would secure at least one new member during 1931. Annual dues $1.00, life membership $10.00. A new year book will be issued at once.

Hoping for your valued co-operation in all that concerns the welfare of our Association, I am

Yours very sincerely,
Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, President,
10 East Franklin Street.

The King to the Wardens of the Mint.

Hampton Court, July, 12, 1667

The King (the Wardens etc. of the Mint). The Office of Assay Master in the Mint being vacant by death of John Woodward and absence of Thos. Woodward his father, who, if alive, is at some plantation on York River, in Virginia, John Brattle is to exercise the Office during the absence of Thos. Woodward, with a fitting allowance.
(Domestic Charles II, Vol. 126, No. 92.)

The following additional items in regard to Thomas Woodward appears in the Isle of Wight records: 1. Nov. 10, 1661, deposition of Thomas Woodward, aged 61 years. 2. Deed, April 12, 1667, from Thomas Woodward, of Isle of Wight, To Robert Harris, for life of said Robert and his son Robert Harris, conveying said Woodward's dwelling house and the plantation Philip Hamford lately lived on, 100 acres. 3. Lease from Thomas Woodward, of Isle of Wight, to Hugh Lattimore and Jane his wife, for their lives, the plantation in Blackwater, where said Hugh lives. 4. Due bill, March 10, 1675-6, from Thomas Woodward to Philip Ludwell for the use of Alexander Culpeper, Surveyor General of Virginia, for 800 lbs. tobacco.

Minutes of the Revolutionary Committee for Isle of Wight County, Virginia.

1775 January 13-June 15

This excerpt of four sheets from the minutes of the Revolutionary Committee of Isle of Wight County, Va.

covers seven meetings of the committee. The proceedings are chiefly concerned with obtaining a sufficient supply of gunpowder for the county though the salt question was considered as well as the defenses of Yorktown. Orders were given for the gunpowder to be seized from individuals. The conclusion was finally reached that gunpowder could only be obtained by importation perhaps from Baltimore. Circulars were ordered to be sent to neighboring counties concerning the importation of gunpowder.

The committee in 1775 consisted of:

John Scarborough Wills, Chairman
Nathaniel Burwell
Rev. John Henry Burgess
William Davis
Brewer Godwin
Josiah Parker, Commander of Isle of Wight Militia
Arthur Smith
Goodwin Wilson
Tristram Norsworthy

Later these were added:

Joshua Council
Joseph Cutchin
John Davis
Thomas Fram

Jethro Gales
Edmund Godwin
William Jordan
Henry Pitt
Thomas Smith
Miles Wilkinson

During Dunmore's campaign practically all the counties around Norfolk, Va. were crushed by the Loyalists with the exception of Isle of Wight. Evidently this committee kept the Whigs in the ascendancy in Isle of Wight. As in the case of other Revolutionary County Committees it seemed well organized.

These minutes are probably of very little value due to their fragmentary character.
